(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, Brooklyn, May 14.—Manager McCloskey was pleased with his clever move in substituting Heebe for Karger, after the latter had pitched six balls yesterday. The change brought him a victory. He on his bounder, Alperman to Jordan. Byrne out on his grasser, Lewis to Jordan. NO RUNS. Lewis singled. Ritter sent a pretty single to the outfield.

The weather was the warmest of the season and the heroes moved around with more than customary ginger. Capt. Casey reported sick and "Whitie" looked for three straight, as the Cardinals appear to have a shade on Patsy Donovan's team.

Alperman went to third, but Patsy had no one to sub for Lewis, who also wanted to quit.

First Inning.

Kelley drove a safe hit out to centre, but was caught stealing second. Miller to Lewis. Hurch was felled out on a home. Maloney stole third and came home, while Noonan loafed on the throw to Hostetter, retiring the side. O'Day allowed both runs to Brooklyn. TWO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Bennet went out, Bell to Jordan. Ho-fast play, Lewis to Jordan. Byrne sent a fly to McCarthy. NO RUNS.

Maloney sent a long fly to Kelley. Hummel pop-flied to Byrne. Lumley singled to centre. Jordan singled to the same place, advancing Lumley to third. On a double steal Jordan reached third. On a double steal Jordan reached third. On a double steal Jordan reached third.

Second and Larry scoring, Noonan dropping Crawford's good throw. McCarthy waited for balls. Alperman singled, filling the bases. Lewis out. Bennett to Hosteter. ONE RUN.

Second Inning.

Bennett sent a fly to Alperman. Host-

Reider struck out. O'Hara sent up a fly to Lewis. NO RUNS.

Ritter was easy. Bennett to Hostetter. Bell retired the same way. Blaloney bunted and was out. Fromme to Hostetter. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.
